MAJOR INCIDENTS

9/16/2025 - Structure Fire – 134 Huggins Rd, Leoni Twp

- At approximately 3:12 a.m. on September 16, 2025, Blackman-Leoni Department of Public Safety was dispatched to a structure fire at 134 Huggins Road in Michigan Center. Upon arrival, firefighters observed heavy flames on the east side of a small single-story residence. A camper parked next to the home was also fully engulfed in flames.

Crews were able to bring the fire under control; however, the residence sustained significant damage. The sole occupant, a 31-year-old male, was asleep when the fire began and was awakened by the blaze. He was able to escape the residence and call 911 from a neighbor's phone. The occupant was transported to Henry Ford Jackson Hospital with non-life threatening injuries and minor smoke inhalation.

The Fire Investigation Team with Blackman-Leoni Department of Public Safety is investigating the cause of the fire.

9/20/2025 - Vehicle Pursuit/Recovered Stolen Vehicle – Blackman Township

- At approximately 2:09 p.m., an officer observed a 2025 Chevrolet Malibu with Florida registration near Forrest Avenue and W. Washington. The officer recognized the vehicle as one that had been reported stolen earlier in the week and initiated a traffic stop.

Upon contact, the officer identified the driver as a Black male and requested that he exit the vehicle. As the officer opened the door, the suspect attempted to close it and then accelerated, fleeing the scene. The officer returned to their patrol vehicle and pursued the suspect for approximately three minutes before losing sight of the vehicle and terminating the pursuit.

A Jackson City Patrol Unit later located the vehicle and attempted another stop. The suspect abandoned the vehicle in the 900 block of First Street and fled on foot. Inside the vehicle, officers recovered the suspect's wallet, identification, Social Security card, and multiple bank cards. Additionally, a box of 5.7x28mm ammunition, several weight scales, prescription pills, and miscellaneous narcotics were found.

The stolen vehicle was recovered and returned to its owner. A report and warrant request will be submitted to the Jackson County Prosecutor's Office seeking multiple felony charges against the identified suspect.
